Formal Donation Commitment to Meet the “Designed to Give” Initiative

To whom it may concern

We are writing to formally commit to supporting IBM of B-Corp’s “Designed to Give” initiative, effective immediately and extending indefinitely. As part of our dedication to fostering sustainable and impactful change, we are pleased to offer 15% of our consulting time pro bono to local charities and impact businesses.

This commitment is in alignment with our values and dedication to contributing to the betterment of our global community. By providing professional consulting services without charge, we aim to support and empower organizations that strive to create a positive social and environmental impact.

We are confident that this contribution of our time and expertise will help amplify the reach and effectiveness of your efforts, enabling you to achieve even greater success in your mission. We look forward to witnessing the positive outcomes that will arise from this collaboration and are honored to be a part of this journey.

Please find the details of our commitment below:

Commitment: 15% of consulting time offered pro bono

Effective Date: Immediate

Duration: In perpetuity

Beneficiaries: Primarily local charities and impact businesses

I kindly request acknowledgment of this commitment. Should you require any additional information or have further instructions regarding the coordination of these services, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you for your unwavering dedication to making a difference. I am excited to support IBM of B-Corp’s “Designed to Give” initiative and look forward to seeing the positive impact it will have.

Yours sincerely,

Roderich Körner-Rehn
